

Quiz Dolceta - How good is your financial knowledge

A quick test to evaluate your financial knowledge.

Read the following statements and decide whether they are true or false.

1) A cheque is a written instruction to your bank to pay a specified sum of money to a named account holder or named bearer.

- True.
 False.

2) Your cheque will bounce if you do not have sufficient funds in your account.

- True.
 False.

3) You will have to pay interest and bank charges if a cheque bounces.

- True
 False.

4) You must always keep your PIN number with the card so you don't forget it, and risk having your card "swallowed" by the machine.

- True.
 False.

5) It is safe in some occasions to respond to e-mails requesting your credit card details.

- True.
- False.

6) A debit card allows consumers to buy goods without having funds in their account.

- True.
- False.

7) When withdrawing cash from ATMs using a credit card, the bank will start charging you interest as soon as the transaction has taken place.

- True.
- False.

8) No interest is paid on the money owed when buying goods on an interest-free offer, if you pay within the term stipulated by the sales contract.

- True.
- False.

Quiz Dolceta - How good is your financial knowledge

Answers

1) A cheque is a written instruction to your bank to pay a specified sum of money to a named account holder or named bearer.

True.

2) Your cheque will bounce if you do not have sufficient funds in your account.

True.

3) You will have to pay interest and bank charges if a cheque bounces.

True

4) You must always keep your PIN number with the card so you don't forget it, and risk having your card "swallowed" by the machine.

False.

5) It is safe in some occasions to respond to e-mails requesting your credit card details.

False.

6) A debit card allows consumers to buy goods without having funds in their account.

False.

7) When withdrawing cash from ATMs using a credit card, the bank will start charging you interest as soon as the transaction has taken place.

True.

8) No interest is paid on the money owed when buying goods on an interest-free offer, if you pay within the term stipulated by the sales contract.

True.